Office of the President

Dear Graduates,

The world has not changed greatly since the founding of St. Stanislaus. You, our graduates of today, face the prospect of possible involvement in the Vietnamese War, just as the first ten classes of graduates were envolved in the War Between the States.

Over all the generations since, the members of each successive class have rejoiced at the completion of another phase of growing up, another degree of maturation, another level of preparation for the duties of manhood. 112 Stanislaus teaching staffs have congratulated and rejoiced with 112 graduating classes, just as we congratulate you and rejoice with you today.

Among your fellow graduates of years gone by are scores of doctors, lawyers, priests, religious, business men, planters,--stanch Christians, patriotic Americans, good fathers of respectable families. You, as well as we, respect them, honor them. We are proud of them. Today, we are happy to add your names to this long roll of Stanislaus graduates. Be an honor to your families, a credit to your school, a support to your community and to your country. Be always worthy sons of God.

Dear Seniors,

Many words will be spoken to you on the occasion of your graduation; yet none will mean more to you now or in later life than the Ametur Cor Jesu, "Loved be the Heart of Jesus" that you have become accustomed to place at the head of every lesson, test, and home assignment.

After the activities of these few but glorious days become memories of the past, you will still have your A.C.J., your Ametur Cor Jesu to carry you through the trials of adult life in a world bent on making you forget your Catholic education, your moral duties — yes, even your God. And the companion response Ametur Cor Mariae, "Loved be the Heart of Mary," is the very proper support which you will need in moments of doubt and temptation.

Associate always each endeavor of your entire life with these two thoughts; and no matter how joyous or sad, how hopeful or hopeless, how successful or failing the events of your career may be, you can be sure that when your work, your recreation, your plans rest in the Heart of Jesus, supported by the intercession of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, you will succeed in that all-important work— the salvation of your immortal soul.

Instead of the traditional Ave atque vale, let me wish you an Ametur Cor Jesu and prayerfully hope that your response will ever be a fervent Ametur Cor Mariae.
